

Lincoln University

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, USA

Since it was founded in 1919, Lincoln University has developed an innovative and multicultural education. Located in the center of the San Francisco Bay Area, the University provides practical and affordable programs

Lincoln University is a private, nonprofit, nonsectarian university based in Oakland, California. It enrolls about 400 students in undergraduate and graduate level programs in business administration, as well as an English language program, certificate programs, and associate degrees. A large percentage of the student body is international students pursuing degrees in business administration.

Entry from GEOS

Pathways Admission to Lincoln University is available after completion of GEOS Level 6 AND IELTS/TOEFL

KEY PROGRAMS

- DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (DBA)
- MASTER OF SCIENCE (MS) IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
- BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA) IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
- MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (MBA)
- MASTER OF SCIENCE (MS) IN FINANCE MANAGEMENT

The benefits of studying at Lincoln University:

- Professional for Business administration
- The 80% of student population is international students
- Located in downtown
- Small population, friendly atmosphere

Because a successful career in the 21st century requires deep understanding of international relations and the impact of globalization, Lincoln is well-positioned to give its students a competitive advantage in business and professional fields

General Admission requirements

TOEFL- 61 (internet based test) - original

$75 Application fee

Program Highlights

We're professional to provide great business administration programs. The population of student is about 400, and 80% of it is composed of international student.

Lincoln University Contact Information

401 15th Street, Oakland,
CA, 94612, USA

Tel: 1-510-628-8010

admissions@lincolnuca.edu

<http://www.lincolnuca.edu/>

GEOS Pathways Contact Information

Pathways@geosvictoria.com
Manager@geosvictoria.com